The Long Island State Veterans Home at Stony Brook

The Long Island State Veterans Home (LISVH) at Stony Brook University is a 350-bed skilled nursing facility and 40-registrant medical model adult day health care program with the mission to provide high quality and compassionate health care services to veterans and their families during a time of great need. In a safe, comfortable, home-like environment, (LISVH) offers an array of long and short-term rehabilitation services that include physical, occupational, respiratory and speech therapies, among many others. With an affiliation with Stony Brook Medicine, the (LISVH) is one of only a few teaching nursing homes across America that strives to advance high standards of care through world-class teaching and research. Even more important than providing outstanding quality care, the Veterans Home focuses on providing the veteran with a higher quality of life. Since August of 2008, The Suffolk District Masons have been providing manpower and support to the LISVH recreational programs each Saturday afternoon. In the past, the Suffolk Masonic District donated Wii Systems, digital cameras, i-pod Shuffles and wireless headsets. More recently, we have provided gift cards to local restaurants and Wal-Mart for those residents who cannot afford to participate in these activities. We will continue sponsorship of a half day fishing trip and a day at the ballpark with The Long Island Ducks for some of the Veterans. We are looking for more that we can do for our Veterans, Please remember the more than one million New York State Veterans that served our country and the "heroes" that may need our services someday. These veterans were there for us and now we are there for them.

Northport Veterans Hospital

On Sunday mornings, Brothers from assigned Lodges, and whoever wishes to participate meet in Building 5 at the Northport Veterans Hospital for breakfast beginning at 8 am. After breakfast, we transport the Residents of the Nursing Home to worship services. Family members and friends are always welcome at both programs. In addition to the hospital visitation, both programs sponsor fishing trips, Ducks games, trips to places of interest such as the Aquarium, and weekly pizza and music get together for the Veterans. The Representative at Stony Brook is Cosmo Camilliti, and at Northport is Douglas Carroll. They both encourage all Brothers and their family and friends to support both programs. In the words impressed upon us all by our dearly departed Brother and Veteran, Donald Marino, "To Serve Is A Privilege."
